I Love My Church That Doesn't Listen To Me

“My Church is like that. They refuse to listen to Me, their LORD Jesus Christ. They are scattered everywhere. They refuse to listen to Me. The church in your dream was true: they don't listen to My people the prophets. They don't listen to Me, their LORD. They are bent on doing their own thing in life, not Mine. They won't listen to Me, My son. They have done that for decades, My son. They won't listen to me, otherwise My world would be evangelized. Your dream was from Me: I Am A Consuming Fire! I Am on fire everywhere I go— I Am the Living God of Eternity, My son. I love you, My son, in fact I Am full of burning love itself— I love you with a burning passion. My love knows no limits— I Am love. I have loved you from eternity past, and will continue to do so forever. I Am love. I Am God. Love Me. Your LORD has spoken. Amen and amen, My son.”
